The second day of competition

Again a very nice day, no wind conditions and a high cloudy overcast , good flying conditions to start with the second day of competition

The day starts with the calibration flight, who else then the president Gerard Werion

Judges are awake, fresh, shaven and ready to calibrate as well

A special attention for Flight line director Alain Laruelle and Yves van Gompel for managing the whole startcyclus and timing shedule

The evening before there was some location change of the timing clock, with the help of a few volunteers they moved the table to another position

A bit more aft Armel

But, there is a famous expression: pilots, “always check your six”

Behind the scene

Behind the scene there is a lot going on, lady;s team AASH works hard till late in the evening

Jean Michel Coulin, always busy with computation and Internet, he also assist me with finishing the Newsletter and publishing them on the internet.

Charles Goutierre, one of the A team who is always busy with Infra and background support

Richard and Annie Werion

They take care of all the drinks (beer etc) and the service in the Tent

Michel Lechat

Thanks to him there is a good toilet and shower. His profession, Furnitur maker. A one of a kind professional !

True story ! He fixed the plane box of a pilot, not only repaired but delivers a brand new one.

This is AASH Sivry

Nautomatic score systems ready for use

Roland and Marie Helene Poidevin

are taking care of the score handling, preparing the nautomatics and minitoring the Nautomatic scores

It can't be big enough

There are some huge planes in there, it looks like as scale 1 to 2 or less, not an F3A class type

Scooby Do

A very special supporter spotted during competition named Scooby Do and is a great fan of Marc Weber Team Luxemburg.

Despite his age (16 years) he stays every day on the sunny field.

Really a true fan !!

The Return of

Wolfgang Matt

it looks like he is returning in the arena again
